Her Excellency,
Chief Mrs Florence Ajimobi,
Wife of the Executive Governor of Oyo State,
Government House Road,
Agodi GRA,
Ibadan.

Your Excellency,

SEEKING A LETTER OF SUPPORT TO A BILL PROHIBITING GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE IN OYO STATE

We commend the efforts of her Excellency in promoting and protecting the interests of women and girl-child in Oyo State. We pray that God in His infinite mercy shall continue to protect and strengthen you and your family including His Excellency so as to excel in the affairs of governance of this Pace-Setter State.

Gender-based violence is topical and rampant in Oyo State, and seeking justice to address the issue has become a huge problem. We have organized along key stakeholders a technical workshop on curbing gender-based violence through pushing for the establishment of Gender Equality Unit so as to facilitate access to gender justice at the High Court of Justice in Oyo State. As a follow up, we are initiating a bill on Gender Based Violence and Related Matters in Oyo State House of Assembly.

In order to give the bill the weight and attention that it deserves and to speed up its passage into law, we are approaching your Excellency as the first Mother of the State to help us write a letter of support to the bill so that we can submit this to the House along with the Bill.

Kindly find attached a position paper on gender-based violence as a product of the technical workshop we had in November 2013. We should be very grateful if you could accede to our humble request in the interest of women and children of Oyo State.

Thank you, Ma.

Accept the assurances of our best regards:
